

[Cook, Samuel Dill]

DEATHS

In Camillus, N.Y., Sept. 26, Samuel Dill, youngest son of S. H. Cook, Esq., aged 9 years, 5 months and 3 days. Once more have Br. and Sister Cook been called to part with one of their loved and dutiful children. This dispensation of Providence seems to them dark and mysterious, yet they are fully assured that our father "doeth all things well." The parents [Sidney Hall and Lois Mansfield Cook], brothers and sisters of the departed [including George, Mahlon, Maurice, Guy, Emily, Josiah, Jeannette, Orange, Sidney and Frances] derive consolation from the hope of future reunion and recognition, in that land which lies beyond the dark abyss of death, where sickness, pain, sorrow and parting are not known. On Sunday, Sept. 28, Elder Freeman, the Baptist Minister in Camillus, with his congregation, freely gave for funeral services, the use of their beautiful edifice, which was filled to overflowing with attentive hearers, including the parents, brothers and sisters of the deceased, to whom were tendered the consolations of the Gospel, by the writer, assisted in the services, in a kind, brotherly and christian manner, by Elder Freeman. May God bless all who mourn.

J. H. Harter

Christian Ambassador, Auburn NY, Sat. 11 Oct 1856
[a Universalist newspaper]

Transcribed on 11 Aug 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY