

[Cooke, Pearl]

Services Held Monday for Pearl Cooke, 76

Funeral services were held Monday for Miss Pearl Cooke, 76, native and lifelong resident of Canton. Miss Cooke died in the E. J. Noble Hospital Friday morning following a week's illness.

The services were held from the Lawrence Funeral home with Rev. Theodore Webb, minister of the Universalist church, officiating.

Miss Cooke was born February 6, 1878, in Canton, a daughter of the late Hartwell and Ellen Montgomery Cooke. Her only survivor is a nephew, Richard Cooke, Canton. Two brothers, Carl and Frank Cooke, predeceased her.
