

[Cooper, Everand E.]

EVERAND E. COOPER

Everand E. Cooper, aged 63 years, died at his home in Batavia Wednesday night, following a two-days' illness from heart failure. For several years Mr. Cooper had been a traveling salesman for the Gary Safe Company of Buffalo. He was a member of Batavia lodge, No. 475 and a past master of Mt. Vernon lodge, F. & A. M. of Java. He is survived by his wife [Dora], and four children Mrs. Wilber D. Slack of Greigsville, Thomas A. and Mary C. Cooper of Batavia, and Miss Hettie M. Cooper of Washington, D. C. The funeral will take place from his late home this afternoon at 1 o'clock, and the remains will be taken to Java, from which place the funeral will be held at the First Baptist church, at 3:30 o'clock, the Rev. John Sayles of Grace Universalist church of Buffalo, officiating and the burial will be in Java.

Daily Times, Batavia NY, Sat. 13 May 1922

Transcribed on 27 Jan 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY