

[Cooper, Frank]

Frank Cooper

Frank Cooper, a faithful and valued employe[e] of the Cooperstown Press, died at his home at 2 Fair street, Cooperstown on Tuesday, April 18th, following a brief illness with bronchial pneumonia. He was born in Cooperstown March 26th, 1859, the son of Peter and Julia Brisbane Cooper. His wife and one son, Edward nine years of age, survive. The funeral will be held on Friday, April 21st, at the Universalist church at 2:30 p. m., the Rev. Charles S. Kramer officiating. Burial will be in Lakewood cemetery.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Fri. 21 Apr 1922

Transcribed on 10 Dec 2023 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY