DEATH TAKES FRANK CORSER LIFELONG RESIDENT

Frank Corser, 60, passed away at the Thompson Memorial Hospital in Canandaigua on Tuesday morning, July 10, after an illness of three weeks. He was born in Macedon Nov. 13, 1884, the son of Raymond and Carrie Crosier Corser, and had resided all his life in Macedon. He had made his home with his sister, Mary E. May, who preceded him in death 12 years ago, and her husband, at 5 Bickford St., for 34 years.

Mr. Corser had been employed at the Ontario Drill Works at East Rochester for more than 35 years. He was a member of the Universalist Church, and had been caretaker of the church for about 25 years.

Survivors are a nephew, Harold May of Rochester, his brother-in-law, Carl A. May of Macedon, and several cousins.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon, from the home, the Rev. John O. Bennett, pastor of the Universalist Church officiating. Burial was in the Macedon Cemetery.
