MISS COUNTRYMAN IS TAKEN BY DEATH AT FALLS INSTITUTION

LITTLE FALLS—Miss Charlotte M. Countryman, 55, died at the local hospital Saturday from complications. She was born August 30, 1880, in the town of Stark, daughter of the late Horace M. and Hattie Springer Countryman. She resided in this city for 30 years, then went to Amsterdam and later to Cranesville, where she taught school. She graduated from the local high school and Albany Normal College. Miss Countryman was an occupant of the automobile in an accident on last Labor Day in which her aunt, Mrs. Charlotte Cassidy, was killed. She was a member of the Universalist church.

She is survived by three cousins residing here, the Misses Hattie and Kittie Cassidy and Leland D. Cassidy, all of this city; and two nephews, Dudley B. Wade and Benjamin B. Wade of Amsterdam.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 from the Newitt funeral home, Rev. C. B. Allnatt of the local Baptist church officiating. Burial will be made in the family plot at Van Hornesville.
