MRS. ADDIE A. CRICHTON

Mrs. Addie A. Crichton died Friday (Nov. 21) on her 89th birthday anniversary at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Spence of Starkey.

She was born in Chittenango and spent most of her life in Syracuse. She was a member of the Betts Memorial Universalist Church, Syracuse, which was erected in memory of her son¹.

Mrs. Crichton is survived by the daughter with whom she lived and four grandsons, W. B. Spence, Baltimore; Robert Spence, Jr., Memphis, Tenn.; Howard G. Spence, Churchville and Theodore Spence, Starkey. Burial was in Hillside cemetery, Dundee.

Penn Yan Courier, Penn Yan NY, Thu. 27 Nov 1947
