

[Cristman, Lloyd H.]

LLOYD H. CRISTMAN

Herkimer—Lloyd H. Cristman, 73, of 404 Park Ave., died yesterday in his home after a short illness.

He was born on Sept. 22, 1886 in Kast Bridge, the son of Herman and Manie Wites Cristman. He was graduated from Herkimer High School in 1906.

His first wife, the former Hazel Harter, died in 1922.

He married Grace Ackerbauer on Aug. 9, 1924 in Johnstown.

He was employed for over 30 years at the Standard Furniture Co. He was also employed by Remington Rand, Iliion, retiring about three years ago.

He was a member of the Universalist Church, Herkimer.

Besides his wife he leaves four sons, Lloyd Jr., Rome, Richard, Springfield, Mass., Dean, Herkimer, [and] Donald, Mohawk; a brother Harold, Patchogue, L. I.; nine grandchildren, one nephew and several cousins.

The funeral will be at 10 Saturday from the Fenner Funeral Home, with the Rev. Thomas Turrell, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery, Herkimer.

Observer-Dispatch, Utica NY, Fri. 9 Aug 1963

Transcribed on 4 Feb 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY