

[Crumb, Florence Emogene Dix]

HUBBARDSVILLE

Hubbardsville, June 24—Mrs. William R. Crumb age 39 died at an early hour Sunday morning at her home here following an illness of less than a week of measles.

Florence Emogene Dix was born in Hamilton, N.Y. Sept, 13, 1890. She was the only daughter of Emma Dix Underdown and the late William Dix. [On] December 11, 1912, she was united in marriage to William Crumb.

Mrs. Crumb attended the Universalist Church and was a loyal member of the Ladies' Improvement Society.

Surviving are her husband, two sons, Lawrence and Ralph of this place and her mother, Mrs. R. F. Underdown of Hamilton.

The funeral services were held from her late home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock standard time and were private. M. DeForest Lowen of Saratoga Springs officiated. Burial was made in Hubbardsville Cemetery.

Waterville Times, Waterville NY, Thu. 26 Jun 1930

Transcribed on 24 Oct 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY