

[Crysler, M. Louise]

DEXTER WOMAN'S RITES SET

The funeral for Miss M. Louise Crysler, 211 E. Bradley St., will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Johnson Funeral Home, Rev. Weston A. Stevens, pastor, All Souls Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Dexter Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. today.

Miss Crysler died Monday morning of a heart condition in the House of the Good Samaritan where she was admitted Sunday. She had a diabetic condition for years but had been active.

She is survived by two brothers, Dr. Earl M. Crysler, Watertown, and Clarence W. Crysler, Point Vivian, with whom she had spent winters in St. Petersburg, Fla., in recent years, and a nephew, Leon W. Wells, principal of Starbuck School, Watertown.

Miss Crysler was born Aug. 17, 1903 on the Crysler family farm near Limerick, but had spent most of her life in Dexter. She was a member of Dexter Universalist Church, the Twentieth Century Study Club, and Brownville Chapter, OES. She was a former member of the board of the Dexter Free Library and served as treasurer for years.
