

[Curtis, W. Ray]

SCHUYLER LAKE

The death of W. Ray Curtis, only son of Dorr Curtis occurred at his home on Angel[1] Hill last week Wednesday. Little Roy [Ray] who was 11 years and five months of age, had been a patient sufferer, having been sick with consumption for a long time. Burial at Exeter Center on Saturday.

Otsego Farmer, Cooperstown NY, Tue. 17 Apr 1900

SCHUYLER LAKE

Quite a number of friends and relatives from here attended the funeral of Ray, son of Dorr and Mary Curtis, at their home on Angell Hill, Saturday. He was a bright little boy of 11 years and an only child. Death was caused by consumption, with which he had been afflicted 4 years, but had seemed to be improving of late, and he was attending school when he was taken worse a short time ago and died Thursday, April 19th. Although he had been unable to attend school much of the time, he was unusually advanced in his studies for one of his age. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of all. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. [Samuel] R. Ward [Universalist].

Richfield Spring Mercury, Richfield Springs NY, Thu. 26 Apr 1900

Transcribed on 18 Feb 2024 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY