

[Darrow, Francis M.]

F. M. DARROW SUCCUMBS

Ill a short time, Francis M. Darrow, photographer here for 27 years, died at his home, 130 S. Salina st., Sunday afternoon. Mr. Darrow and his wife celebrated their fifty-sixth wedding anniversary on Nov. 7. Born at Pulaski, Dec. 2, 1856, Mr. Darrow was married in Fulton, where he was a photographer for 33 years before coming to Syracuse. Early this month, Mr. and Mrs. Darrow and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Ransdall, who also celebrated their fifty-sixth wedding anniversary in November, were guests of honor at a Betts Memorial [Universalist] Church harvest supper. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. May Hudson Darrow; a son, Ernest J. Darrow of Newark, and two grandsons, Francis Darrow and Ernest Darrow Jr. Funeral services will take place at the rooms of the Traugott Company, funeral directors, at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Ellsworth C. Reamon, pastor of Betts Memorial Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Fulton.

Syracuse Journal, Syracuse NY, Mon. 26 Nov 1934

Transcribed on 1 Nov 2023 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY