

[Davis, Estella Mae Fish]

ESTELLA MAE DAVIS

Dolgeville—Mrs. Estella Mae Davis died yesterday at the home of her daughter Mrs. Kenneth Deuel, Salisbury Center, after a long illness.

She was born Sept. 25, 1876, in Tulley [Tully] Valley, daughter of Peleg and Mary Fish. She had lived in Salisbury Center the past 20 years, coming here from Cardiff.

On July 3, 1892, she was married to Stephen Davis. He died several years ago. She was a member of the Universalist Church of Salisbury Center.

She leaves six daughters, Mrs. Elmer Matison and Mrs. Kenneth Deuel, both of Salisbury Center; Mrs. Herbert Neitzke of St. Johnsville; Mrs. Charles Knickerbocker of Lafayette; Mrs. Cecil Smith of Millsdale, N.J.; Mrs. Mark Ackles of Dolgeville; three sons, Guy Davis of Lafayette; Guy Davis of Dolgeville; Thomas Davis of Nedrow; 22 grandchildren, 37 great grandchildren; a great grandchild.

The funeral will be at 2 Thursday from the home of Mrs. Deuel, Salisbury Center, the Rev. Morris Cobbs [Maurice Cobb], pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Dibble and Tuttle Cemetery, Salisbury Center.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Tue. 13 Oct 1959