L. Frank Davis, 70, Dies, Long Mohawk Resident

MOHAWK—L. Frank Davis, 70, of 33 E. Main St., a resident here for the past 35 years, died Saturday in Herkimer Memorial Hospital after an illness of several months.

He was a son of Leonard W. and Mary J. King Davis, born Jan. 17, 1883 in Farmington, Conn. He retired five years ago from the Remington Arms Co., Iliion, after working there for many years.

He was a member of the Universalist Church, Herkimer, the Mohawk Fish and Game Club and Spruce Lake Association.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Clara Jane Motz Davis; a sister, Mrs. Ernest W. Blue, Poland; a brother, Ernest L. Davis, Herkimer, and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow from the Chase-Parsons Funeral Home, 43 E. Main St., with the Rev. Stanley C. Stall, Universalist pastor, Herkimer officiating. Interment will be in Mohawk Cemetery.

Members of Elizabeth Rebekah Lodge will visit the funeral home tonight to pay their last respects.
