

[Delano, Henry C.]

Henry C. Delano

Henry C. Delano, age 71, died at his home in Barre Center on Monday, March 1, 1954, after a long illness. He served as supervisor of the Town of Barre for 17 years and was a former chairman of the Orleans County Board of Supervisors.

First elected as supervisor in 1936, he served until 1950, when he declined renomination. He was board chairman in 1947 and 1948. He was a member of the Universalist Church of Albion [Pullman Memorial], a past master of Barre Grange, a past director of the Farmers Mutual Insurance Company of Niagara and Orleans Counties, and the first president of the Orleans County Farm and Home Bureau and 4-H Club Association.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Ethel Slater Delano; two daughters, Mrs. Albert C. Raymond and Mrs. Laurel D. Trusselle of Albion; and two grandsons.

Funeral services will be held in Albion this (Thursday) afternoon at two o'clock, with burial at the convenience of the family.
