

[Dell, Fred E.]

FRED E. DELL

Fort Plain—Fred E. Dell, 62, lifelong resident of the Town of Minden, died in the Little Falls City Hospital last night at 8:15 after being confined there [12?] days.

He was a son of the late John and Rosa Moyer Dell and was born in the Town of Danube, Jan 21 (or 24?), 1869. He was a member of the town board, the Universalist Church, Mohawk Valley Lodge, No. 66, K. of P., and was a justice of the peace.

Surviving are his widow, formerly Anna M. Snell; one brother, William Dell, of Little Falls; two sisters, Mrs. Jacob Alter of Nelliston and Mrs. Elton Andrews of Minden; also several nieces and nephews.

[The body was?] brought to Fort Plain last night by Undertaker A. G. Swarts & Sons and this afternoon was taken to his home at Minden, where the funeral will be Friday afternoon at 2, the Rev. Rufus Dix, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Minden.

Observer-Dispatch, Utica NY, Wed. 18 Mar 1931

F. E. DELL, MINDEN, DIES IN HOSPITAL
Was Justice of Peace and Member of Town Board

Fort Plain, March 19—Fred E. Dell, 62, one of the best known residents of the Minden section of this town, died at the Little Falls Hospital, Tuesday night, where he had been a patient for two weeks.

He was a justice of the peace and a member of the Town Board of the town of Minden, member of Universalist Church and Mohawk Valley Lodge 66, Knights of Pythias. In politics, he was a Republican. He had been a resident of this town for many years and was a hay buyer. Mr. Dell was of a genial nature and easily made friends.

He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Anna Snell; two sisters, Mrs. Jacob Alter, of Nelliston, and Mrs. Elton Andrews, of Minden; one brother, William Dell, of this town. The remains were taken to the Swartz undertaking rooms here and later removed to his home in Minden, where the funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2, Rev. Rufus H. Dix, pastor of the Universalist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Minden Cemetery.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Thu. 19 Mar 1931