

[Derthick, Charles]

DEATHS.

At Ione City, California., Jan. 24th, of tetanus, occasioned by a wound from the accidental discharge of a gun, Mr. CHARLES DERTHICK, youngest son of the late Col. John Derthick, of Richfield, N.Y., aged nearly 26 years. Thus do afflictions multiply to this family, who have been ever ready and active in relieving misfortune and conferring blessings upon others. The father died Feb. 4th, and in remembering the distant son in the funeral service, I little thought that he had already preceded his venerable and honored parent to the land of rest. The remains of the son will be brought to his native township for interment. Several of our clergymen who have shared the kindness of this afflicted family in the days of their unclouded joy, have recently remembered them in letters of sympathy and condolence.
