

[Devendorf, Ellen M. Easton]

Mrs. Ellen M. Devendorf

The Utica Press says:—Ellen M. Easton, widow of Lucien B. [Bellinger] Devendorf, died at her home in Washington, D. C., Wednesday, and her remains will be brought here Saturday for interment beside those of her husband in New Forest cemetery. Mrs. Devendorf was a native of Cedarville and was in her 90th year. In 1854 she married Mr. Devendorf and since 1870 her home has been in this city until about a year ago. Her husband was a dealer in monuments and was well known throughout Oneida and Herkimer counties. He died in this city February 20, 1902. The family lived for many years at 101 Rutger street. Mrs. Devendorf was one of the oldest members of the Church of the Reconciliation [Universalist] in this city, and was highly respected by all. She is survived by her son, Harry E. [Easton] Devendorf, who was the private secretary to Congressman Sherman for years; and two grandchildren, Raymond E. and Grace Devendorf, of Washington, D. C.

Evening Recorder, Amsterdam NY, Fri. 9 Oct 1914

Transcribed on 15 Jan 2015 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY