

[Devendorf, Margaret]

MRS. DEVENDORF DEAD

Mother of Justice Devendorf Passes Away at an Advanced Age

Justice Irving Devendorf received word early this morning from Baldwinsville of the death there of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Devendorf. He adjourned court until Tuesday next to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Devendorf died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George E. Blanchard, in Grove street, Baldwinsville, at 4 o'clock this morning. She was 88 years old and widow of Levinus Devendorf. She was born in Montgomery county but lived most of her life in Little Falls, N.Y. She removed to Baldwinsville to live with her daughter about seven years ago.

In addition to Justice Devendorf and Mrs. Blanchard, she is survived by a son, Stewart Devendorf of Little Falls. Mrs. Devendorf was a member of the Universalist church, and the funeral services at Mrs. Blanchard's home Saturday afternoon will be conducted by Rev. Frederick W. Betts of Syracuse. Burial will be made in Little Falls.

Oswego Daily Times, Oswego NY, Thu. 22 Jan 1914

Transcribed on 27 Feb 2008 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY