

[Devendorf, Rudolph]

DEATHS.

On the 31st of July last, at his residence in Hastings, Oswego county, Hon. RUDOLPH DEVENDORF, in the 75th year of his age. He was buried the next day and followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends. Judge Devendorf had just returned home from a visit to his friends at the West. He ate his supper, and retired to rest in his usual apparent health. During the night, the family heard a noise in his room, which they immediately entered, and found him struck with death. Before his eldest son, who resided only a short distance from him, could be called to his bedside, he had expired. Judge Devendorf formerly resided in Herkimer county, where he has many connexions now living. He raised a family of children, some of whom have held stations of honor among their fellow citizens.—He was always a firm believer in the doctrine of God's impartial grace, and died as he had lived, in the full faith and practice of universal love and salvation. He so exemplified by his life and conversation, the doctrine he professed and believed, that most of his numerous descendants cling to the religion of their father as the only true faith delivered to the apostles. I knew him well. He was a good citizen, a kind father and an affectionate friend. He leaves a numerous circle of relatives and friends to mourn his decease.

FRANKFORT.

Evangelical Magazine & Gospel Advocate, Utica NY, Fri. 11 Sep 1846
[a Universalist newspaper]