

[Devoe, Daniel A.]

DANIEL A. DEVOE

December 26th, 1898, occurred the death of Daniel A. Devoe at his home about three miles southwest of this village, after an illness of two weeks, aged 78 years, 8 months and 24 days. Mr. Devoe was born in the town of Warren, Herkimer County, but for the last 37 years had resided on the farm where he died. He was a prosperous farmer and highly respected by a large circle of acquaintances. He was a staunch republican and a member of the Universalist church of Fort Plain. He is survived by a widow [Maria Snell Devoe], 3 daughters, Mrs. Schuyler Duryee of Everett, Washington, Mrs. Lottie Zoller of West Union, Iowa, and Mrs. Frank W. [Meeta E.] Bauder of Freysbush, and one son, Daniel I. Devoe of Fort Plain. The funeral was held from the house last Friday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. H. [Herbert] W. Carr of Fort Plain, officiating.

Canajoharie Courier, Canajoharie NY, Tue. 3 Jan 1899

Transcribed on 3 Jan 2018 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY