

[Diefendorf, Ruby Hubble]

MRS. VICTOR DIEFENDORF

The death of Mrs. Ruby Hubble Diefendorf, wife of Victor Diefendorf of Fort Plain, N.Y., occurred Monday, March 24th, in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, Canada. Death was the result of empyema (pus in the lungs), from which she had suffered for some time. She had been in the hospital three times within the past ten months and had undergone several operations.

Mrs. Diefendorf was born October 21, 1889 in Portage Creek, Pa., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hubble. She came with the family to Hilton when she was a young girl. She was a graduate of Hilton High School in the class of 1909 and of Geneseo Normal School, class of 1912. For five years, she taught in the school at Fort Plain, where she met and married Victor Diefendorf of that village. She was a member of Otsquaga Chapter, O.E.S, and of the Fort Plain Universalist Church.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Robert and Fenton; her mother, Mrs. Elma Hubble of Hilton; one brother, Earl Hubble, and one sister, Mrs. Fred Hickey, both of Hilton; also one half sister, Mrs. Bert Judd of Hilton, and a half brother, W. J. Windsor of Buffalo.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at Fort Plain, with interment in the Fort Plain cemetery.
