

[Dingman, Charles]

AGED LOCAL RESIDENT DIES IN SCHENECTADY

FORT PLAIN—Charles Dingman, 72, died Wednesday at a private hospital in Schenectady where he had been a patient for the past several months, having entered the hospital on December 2, 1929. Mr. Dingman was born at Marshville, town of Canajoharie, on June 27, 1857, the son of Maria Lewis and John Dingman, and has lived his lifetime in this section. For a number of years he was gate tender on the gate of the West Shore crossing in this village and at the age of 70 was retired on a pension by the railroad.

Mr. Dingman is survived by his wife [Zenia Kettler Dingman]; one son, Harry Dingman, of Fort Plain; one daughter, Mrs. Harry Slingerland of Springfield, Mass., and three grandchildren.

There will be a prayer at the home at 2 on Saturday and the funeral will be held from the Catherine Nellis Memorial chapel at 2:20, the Rev. Rufus H. Dix, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating. Interment will be in the Fort Plain cemetery.

Morning Herald, Gloversville NY, Fri. 2 May 1930

Transcribed on 31 Oct 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY