BRAMANS CORNERS WOMAN, 87, DIES

BRAMANS CORNERS, Sept. 19.—Mrs. Christine Nethaway Donohue, 87, died Saturday in Nathan Littauer hospital, Gloversville, after a long illness. She was born in Schoharie county April 6, 1851, and spent most of her life here until three year ago when she went to Johnstown to live with a granddaughter, Mrs. Elsie Rector. She was the widow of the late James Donohue. Survivors include a son, William, Amsterdam; three sisters, Mrs. William Gardinier and Mrs. Burton D. Jones, Delanson, and Mrs. John Loucks, Cobleskill; a brother, Urias Nethaway, Delanson; 10 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, one great-great granddaughter and several nieces and nephews. She was a member of the Universalist Church.

Rev. John J. Prudom, pastor of the Delanson Methodist Church, will conduct funeral services Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the White funeral home, Delanson, and burial will be made here.
