

[Doty, Alice]

FUNERAL OF MISS DOTY.
Many Friends Attended—Beautiful Floral Tributes

The funeral of Miss Alice Doty was held from her late residence, 422 State street, Wednesday p.m., and the house was filled with friends who assembled to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of one who was loved by all. Many school teachers were present, the public schools being closed for the afternoon. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

Rev. G. [George] Delbert Walker [minister of the Universalist church] officiated and spoke touchingly on the life of the deceased. During the services the Universalist choir sang two hymns, "Abide With Me," and "Nearer, My God to Thee." Richard A. Atkin also sang a solo entitled "A Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and it was very impressive. The bearers were James Eisenmann, Edmund Spencer, William Heth, Gustav A. Rapp, John Roraback and Fayette Fowler.

Columbia Republican, Hudson NY, Fri. 12 Oct 1906

Transcribed on 7 Nov 2014 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY