

[Douglass, Sally B. Shaw]

DEATHS.

In this city [Utica], very suddenly, on the 2d instant, Mrs. SALLY B., consort of Mr. Norton Douglass, and only daughter of Mr. Rufus Shaw, of New Berlin, in the 20th year of her age. She had just given birth to a fine son [Norton B.] and daughter [Sally B.], (twins,) thus leaving this tender and double charge to her deeply afflicted husband, to whom she had been united a little less than a year. She was a firm believer in the doctrine of impartial grace, had long been one of the singers in the Universalist church in this city, lived a virtuous and exemplary life, highly respected by all who knew her, and died composed, resigned, and deeply lamented. May God, in his abundant mercy, bless and comfort the bereaved husband, bestow his choice blessings on him and the tender charge, together with all that mourn, giving them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness.
