

[Drullard, Solomon]

OBITUARY NOTES

Solomon Drullard, a prominent citizen of Buffalo and a member of the firm of Drullard & Hayes, sewer-pipe manufacturers, of that city, died suddenly yesterday of heart disease, at the age of 76 years. Mr. Drullard was born in Canada, but had lived in Buffalo for 56 years. He was in the employ of the Central Railroad Company a long time, filling the position of General Freight Agent for 20 years. About 15 years ago he engaged in the manufacture of sewer pipe, and had become wealthy. He was a member of the Universalist Church.
