

[Duffie, Addie May Littledyke]

MRS. SEELEY DUFFIE

Mrs. Seeley Duffie, who resided at their farm home on the town line between Perry and Leicester and who had been in failing health since last spring, suffered a second shock [stroke] last week Wednesday and died last Monday night.

Addie May Littledyke, born on January 5, 1864, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John [and Ann] Littledyke and one of their family of seven children—one son and six daughters. They were Anna and Elizabeth, who married John Hull; Addie (Mrs. Duffie); Jessie (Mrs. Fayette Schenck); Jennie (Mrs. John Gayton); Mattie (Mrs. Henry Bush); and William J. Littledyke. Anna, Elizabeth and Addie have passed to the beyond.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffie were married in Perry on November 12, 1885, by the late Rev. John F. Gates, pastor of the Universalist Church. They had no children, and survivors are her husband, Mrs. Gayton, Mrs. Bush, Mrs. Schenck and Mr. Littledyke, above referred to.

Funeral services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 1 o'clock at the farm home. Rev. J.A. Judge of the Universalist Church will officiate. Interment will be in Glenwood Cemetery.
