

[Duffie, Seeley P.]

SEELEY P. DUFFIE

When Seeley P. Duffie, 72, failed to appear from his room Thursday morning, Mrs. Roy Hull, niece, went there and found him dead in bed. Coroner F.J. Bowen of Mount Morris was called and issued a certificate of death from natural causes. Mr. Duffie was a life long farmer residing near the Twin Bridges, east of Perry.

He was born in the town of Leicester August 30, 1862, one of a family of six children born to Matthew and Olive Duffie. He is survived by the youngest sister, Mrs. William J. Littleddyke.

On Nov. 12, 1885 he was united in marriage to Miss Addie M. Littleddyke whose death occurred Jan. 29 of this year. Their entire life was spent in the Duffie homestead. Since the death of the wife Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hull have resided with Mr. Duffie.

Funeral services were held in the home Saturday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. J.A. Judge, pastor of the Universalist church officiating and interment was in Glenwood cemetery.

Among those present at the services were George Gasker of Brooklyn, who made his home for many years with Mr. and Mrs. Duffie; also Mr. Gasker's sister, Mrs. J.A. Fitchen and son Richard of Jersey City.

Perry Herald, Perry NY, Wed. 29 Aug 1934