FORT PLAIN

Death of Ephriam Dunckel, an Old Minden Resident

Ephriam Dunckel, one of the older residents of this town, died at his home in Rex Tuesday morning, at the age of 83 years. The deceased was one of the best known citizens in this locality, being a son of Capt. Peter Dunckel, an early settler. In politics he was a staunch Democrat. He is survived by one son, Tillson, with whom he had resided for a number of years. The funeral will be held from his late home Thursday at 10 a.m. Rev. L. [Lewis] J. Richards [Universalist] will be the officiating clergyman. Interment will be made in Fort Plain cemetery.
