Ora L. Dunteman

Ora L. Dunteman, this city, passed away at a Utica hospital yesterday, Feb. 8, 1937, after an illness of about two months.

Miss Dunteman was born in Little Falls Sept. 1, 1871, daughter of the late Henry and Rozellen Countryman Dunteman. She had taught in the district schools in this vicinity and also substituted in the local schools. Later she clerked in some of the dry goods stores in this city. Miss Dunteman was a member of the Universalist Church.

She is survived by one brother George H. Dunteman, 627 East Monroe Street, to whose home the body was removed.
