

[Dutcher, Mae E. Hendrickson]

MRS. MAE E. DUTCHER

McLean, Nov. 9.—Services were held Tuesday at 2:30 P.M. in the Universalist Church for Mrs. Mae E. Dutcher, 91, widow of Charles Marvin Dutcher, who passed away Saturday night at the home of her daughter Mrs. Viola Reniff.

Mrs. Dutcher who had lived most of her life in McLean, had been in failing health several years.

She was born May 11, 1859 in Moravia, a daughter of Johnathan and Hannah Hendrickson. Mrs. Dutcher was a member of the [former] McLean Universalist Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Jessie McDermott of Stanford, Conn., Mrs. Vedah Carter of Brentwood, L. I., and Mrs. Reniff of McLean. Two sons, Earle Dutcher of Sangerfield and Wells Dutcher of Maraton, 6 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Rev. Stanley Skinner, pastor of the McLean Federated Church, officiated. Burial took place in the McLean Cemetery.

Cortland Democrat, Cortland NY, Fri. 10 Nov 1950

Transcribed on 19 Oct 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY