DEATHS.

In Rochester, Oct. 23, LOUISA, wife of Carlton Dutton, Esq., aged 31 years. Her illness was of but few hours in duration, and was very painful. Her death is severely felt by her husband, who was absent at the time, by her relatives and numerous friends.—Faithful and affectionate as a wife, kind and wise as a mother, firm and consistent as a believer, attractive as a friend, and virtuous in example, her departure is widely felt and mourned, and has caused deep grief in her home, her social circle, and her religious society. A very large congregation assembled at the Universalist Church, on the 26th of October, who showed their deep sympathy for the afflicted husband and his only child, a daughter [Georgianna]. The consolations of the Gospel were tendered by the writer.
