JOHN B. DYMOCK

John B. Dymock, 75, formerly of this city, died suddenly early this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Allen Shank, 237 Winthrop Road, Syracuse.

Mr. Dymock was born in Mandana but had lived in Auburn many years, going to Syracuse three years ago. He operated a plumbing business and store in Clark St. for many years before his retirement.

He was a member of the First Universalist Church of Auburn and Auburn Lodge 431, F. & A.M.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Ira Atkins Dymock; his daughter, Mrs. Shank; one sister, Mrs. Francis Copp of California, and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Langham Funeral Home. Burial will be in Soule Cemetery.

Friends are invited to call from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home.
