Mrs. Katie Eaton Dies at Home of Daughter

Mrs. Katie Burt Eaton, 81, died yesterday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Ade, Pine Grove Rd., East Herkimer, where she had resided for the past seven months, following a several months' illness.

A daughter of Delos and Mary Brown Burt, she was born in the Town of Little Falls on Aug. 23, 1872. She was married Aug. 14, 1890 to Abram P. Eysaman, who died July 3, 1907. Her second husband, Wilmuth Eaton, to whom she was married Nov. 1, 1916, died in 1929. Mrs. Eaton attended Little Falls Universalist Church.

Besides Mrs. Ade, another daughter, Mrs. Laura Petrie, Herkimer; a son, Clarence Eysaman, Shells Bush Rd., Herkimer; three grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren, and a brother, John Burt, survive.

Services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Sunday from Mrs. Ade's home, by the Rev. Stanley C. Stall, pastor of the Unniversalist Church, Herkimer. Interment will be in Church St. Cemetery, Little Falls.
