CHARLES E. EHLE

Fort Plain, Oct. 3—Charles E. Ehle, 82, died Sunday at his home, Upper Main Street, after an illness of one week with heart trouble.

He was born in the town of Minden, April 16, 1850, a son of Chauncey and Nancy Hawn Ehle. He was married to Mary Getman 58 years ago. For 50 years Mr. Ehle had been a resident of Fort Plain. In practice he was a Democrat and had served as town clerk of this town. For several years he was the manager of the Charles Maylander variety store here. Mr. Ehle was a member of Mohawk Valley Lodge No. (??), Knights of Pythias, of Fort Plain, and the Fort Plain Universalist Church.

He is survived by his wife; one son, Leroy Ehle; a grandson, Victor Ehle; one sister, Mrs. Sidney [Ida M.] Cornue, all of Fort Plain.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the home and at 2:30 from the Catherine Nellis Memorial Chapel, Rev. Rufus H. Dix, pastor of the Fort Plain Universalist Church, officiating. Interment will be in the Fort Plain Cemetery.
