

[Ellsworth, Philip]

Philip Ellsworth

Philip Ellsworth of Gloversville died Thursday night in the 66th year of his age. He had for forty years been a prominent resident of Gloversville, and up to the time he was taken ill, about a year ago, had conducted a large glove and mitten factory. He was a great admirer of dumb animals, and in the rear of his home had quite a menagerie. He was a member of Gloversville lodge, No. 429, F. and A. M. Besides his wife, deceased is survived by four brothers, George of Lockport, Warren of Albany, Dyer of Amsterdam and Benjamin of Gloversville.

Evening Recorder, Amsterdam NY, Fri. 14 Mar 1902

Funeral Services.

The funeral of Philip Ellsworth was held from his late home, No. 95 North School street at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and was largely attended. Rev. F. [Frederick] W. Betts, pastor of the Universalist church of this city, officiated at the service. There were many beautiful floral remembrances received from relatives and friends. At the conclusion of the service the body was taken to Prospect Hill cemetery and placed in the receiving vault. The bearers were Messrs. E. M. Bishop, Daniel Bell, John Coughry, and Fulton Hard.

Daily Leader, Gloversville NY, Mon. 17 Mar 1902

Transcribed on 5 Feb 2019 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY