MRS. CASSIE EVELAND

PURDY CREEK, N.Y., Feb. 11.—Mrs. Cassie K. Eveland, for many years a resident of North Hornell, died early Thursday morning in the Mullen nursing home in Canisteo. She was 83 years old. Before going to the Mullen home she lived with her niece, Mrs. Francis M. Aker, of Hartsville, for nearly 3 years. Mrs. Eveland was born in Greenwood but spent nearly all her life in North Hornell where she had many friends. She was a patient in the Mullen nursing home for a little over a year. For many years she was an active member of the Universalist church in Hornell. She is survived by a niece, Mrs. Francis M. Aker of Hartsville, and 3 nephews, Warren King, Wilbur Quick of Bath and Ray Quick of Geneseo.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the Robertson funeral home in Hornell with Rev. Charles Thomas of Woodbury Universalist church officiating. Burial in Hope cemetery.
