

[Eves, Frank M.]

Frank M. Eves

To the older members of our church the name of Eves carries a special significance. The family have been life-long Universalists in this city, and for two generations have served our church with loyal devotion. Of late years Frank M. Eves has been unable to take an active part in our church life, but there was a time when he gave of his best to it. Perhaps no clearer insight into a man's character can be gained than by listening to the tributes of those with whom that man has spent long years of labor. "A hard worker." "Dependable." "Faithful." "Trustworthy." These were the words used by his fellow-employees of the railroad who acted as bearers at his funeral, and overheard on the way to the place of burial [in Mt. Hope Cemetery].

Our kindest thoughts and deepest sympathy go out to his mother, Mrs. William M. [Elizabeth Davis] Eves, and his sister, Mrs. Rose Hutchins.

Our Outlook, First Universalist Church, Rochester NY, February 1935

Transcribed on 2 Sep 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY