

[Failing, Nellie Sutliff]

Mrs. Charles Failing

Fort Plain, July 29.—Mrs. Charles Failing, 70, died at 4:30 this morning at her home in Nelliston. She had been ill for some time. Mrs. Failing was born in Cherry Valley August 6, 1861, a daughter of the late Julius R. and Emeline Barnes Sutliff, but had been a resident of Nelliston many years. She was a member of the local Universalist church. Surviving are two sons, Julius Failing of Nelliston and Archibald of Utica; three sisters, Mrs. Rose England of Toronto, Can., Mrs. Jane Jacques of Johnstown, Pa., and Miss Mollie Sutliff of Cherry Valley; also six grandchildren. The funeral will be held from the home Monday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. L. [Lewis] J. Richards of Tarpon Springs, Fla., formerly pastor of the local Universalist church officiating. Interment in the local cemetery.

Enterprise and News, St. Johnsville NY, Wed. 5 Aug 1932

Transcribed on 27 Dec 2023 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY