

[Fairchild, Alice Kelsey]

MRS. W. F. FAIRCHILD, 62, IS DEAD AT HOME

Mrs. Alice Kelsey Fairchild, wife of William F. Fairchild, of No. 531 Columbia avenue, and mother of Elmer B. Fairchild, president of the Alderman-Fairchild Company, and president of the Rochester Exposition, died yesterday, aged 62 years. Mrs. Fairchild was born in Fulton and had lived here for thirty-two years.

Funeral services will take place at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning from her home. Rev. William Wallace Rose, minister of the First Universalist Church, of which she was a member, will officiate. The body will be taken to Fulton, where services will be held at the cemetery chapel.

The bearers will include her grandson, E. Earl Fairchild, and three nephews, Bert [Person?] and Fred and Robert Kelsey.

Besides her husband and son, she leaves two daughters, Hazel B. Fairchild and Mrs. J. F. Hewitt, of Buffalo.
