

[Fancher, Edward B.]

EDWARD FANCHER

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Eaton Funeral Home, Perry, for Edward B. Fancher, 46, who died unexpectedly Thursday, Feb. 3, 1955, at his home at 123 Lake Street, Perry. Burial was in Leicester Cemetery with the Rev. Phillip Mayer [of the Perry Universalist Church] officiating.

Mr. Fancher, who was employed by the Potter DeWitt Corp., Pavilion, during the construction season, was found dead about 5 p.m. by his son James, 15, upon the son's return home from school. An autopsy performed by Dr. Joseph Tennenburg of Batavia revealed death was from natural causes.

Born in Chicago, July 12, 1908, he was a son of Edward and Elizabeth Fancher. The family came to Perry about 44 years ago. Mrs. Fancher is a nurse in the Mt. Morris Hospital.

Surviving are the wife, the former Margaret Silsbe of Bath; six children: Sandra, attending school in Albany; Vada, Nancy, Jane, James and John, all at home; and his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Fagan of Rochester.
