

[Farley, Leon S.]

Leon S. Farley, a native of Fort Plain, and only son of J. Sherman Farley and the late Mrs. Ida Snell Farley, died in Chicago Friday, with typhoid pneumonia, aged about 36 years. Mr. Farley was a man of pleasing address and popular with his friends.—The remains were brought to Fort Plain Sunday and were taken to the home of his uncle, John P. Snell, where the funeral was held Monday afternoon, Rev. L. [Lewis] J. Richards [Universalist] officiating. He is survived by a widow, formerly Miss Myra Clover of Fort Plain, father, and one sister.
