

[Farmer, Helen]

MISS HELEN FARMER

Miss Helen Farmer, aged 45 years, died yesterday at her home in Nelliston, following an illness of several months. Miss Farmer was well known and had many friends who will regret her death. For several years she followed the occupation of school teacher and held several positions successfully. She later became a stenographer and accountant. She was also interested in the woman suffrage movement, and was among the first 200 women in the State to work for the cause. Besides her mother, with whom she resided, she is survived by one brother, the Rev. Thomas J. Farmer of Auburn, Me., two sisters, Mrs. Irving [Gertrude S.] Casler of Nelliston and Mrs. Earl W. Zimmerman of Syracuse. The funeral will be held from the late home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Rev. H. F. Moulton, pastor of the local Universalist Church, officiating. The burial will be made in the Fort Plain Cemetery.

Herald-Dispatch, Utica NY, Fri. 18 Jul 1919

Transcribed on 23 Feb 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY