

[Farns, Thomas]

Brick Chapel

Mr. Thomas Farns, an old resident of this place, was buried on Sunday, October 20. Funeral services at the house at 1 P.M., conducted by Dr. J. S. [John Stebbins] Lee. Mr. Farns was an able, intelligent man, respected by all who knew him. During the earlier part of his life, and until within the past few years, he was a great reader and thinker. But when old age settled down upon him, it rendered him somewhat helpless. He leaves a wife [Cynthia], two [three] daughters Emeline, Ida and Effie] and two sons [including Odo]. He was a firm believer in the Universalist faith.
