

[Faville, Blanche Houghton]

MRS. FAVILLE, RC ORGANIZER, DIES IN SLEEP

Mrs. Blanche H. Faville died in her sleep at her home at 17 West Faville avenue, Sunday night. She was born July 27, 1866 in Little Falls. On May 21, 1895, she was married to William H. Faville in Little Falls and they came to their present home in Dolgeville, where they had since resided.

Mrs. Faville was a member of the Universalist church and organized the first local chapter of the Red Cross in which she had since been an active and faithful worker. She was well known for her musical and cultural contributions to the community.

The survivors are the husband; two sisters, Mrs. Felix Berthold, Little Falls, and Mrs. R. E. [Mabel Houghton, wife of Richard Eddy Sykes] Sykes of Canton.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday at the convenience of the family, Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton officiating. The body will be taken to Troy for cremation. The ashes will be buried in the Dolgeville cemetery. Friends are requested to omit flowers.

Morning Herald, Gloversville NY, Wed. 31 Mar 1948

Transcribed on 17 Jul 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY