

[Fell, George S.]

GEORGE S. FELL

George S. Fell, one of Potsdam's oldest business men died at his home on Main street Wednesday evening about nine o'clock after a long illness. The immediate cause of his death was heart trouble.

Mr. Fell was born in Canton 62 year ago, on the 7th day of July. Thirty seven years ago last January he married Miss Emma Ransom and she with their two sons, Glenn C. and Percy R., survive him.

Mr. Fell has been in the meat business at the market on Market St. for over 50 years, with his father until the latter's death and since then alone and with his sons. Of an affable nature, Mr. Fell made hosts of friends who will regret his death.

As a neighbor we always found Mr. Fell obliging, courteous and hospitable, and no man was ever kinder or more devoted to his family.

Funeral services will be held at the Universalist Church, Saturday at 2 o'clock, Rev. D. L. Fisher officiating.
