

[Fenner, Lillian A. Morris]

MRS. LILLIAN A. FENNER

Little Falls—Mrs. Lillian A. Fenner, 87, 313 S. Ann St., died Mar. 2, 1941.

Born in Eatonsbush, she was the daughter of Thomas and Diantha [Houghton?] Morris. On Jan. 28, 1873 she was married to Frank Fenner in Fairfield. He died in 1927. Mrs. Fenner was a member of the Universalist Church.

She leaves one sister, Mrs. Ida Wires, Scarsdale, three nephews and three nieces.

The funeral will be conducted at 2 p.m. tomorrow from the home. The Rev. Howard Gilman of the St. Paul's Universalist Church will officiate and burial will be in Middleville.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Mon. 3 Mar 1941

MRS. LILLIAN M. FENNER

The death of Mrs. Lillian M. Fenner of Little Falls occurred on March 2, after a year of poor health. She was in her eight-seventh year. She was a native of Eatonsbush and was married to the late Frank Fenner in 1875. They occupied farms in Fairfield and vicinity and some fifty years ago moved to Little Falls. Mrs. Fenner was very active in the work of St. Paul's Universalist Church and was particularly famous for the doughnuts that she made for church suppers and food sales. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. B. C. Wires of Scarsdale, three nieces and three nephews. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Howard B. Gilman.

Empire State Universalist, Cortland NY, April 1941

Transcribed on 8 Apr 2013 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY