

[Ferrin, Anna Pickard]

Services Held for Mrs. Ferrin, 89, Well Known Resident, Are Held

Bristol—Mrs. Anna Ferrin, wife of Frank P. Ferrin, died on Saturday afternoon at the age of 89 years, after a long and useful life. She had been in failing health but her last illness lasted only a few days.

She was born in the western part of town on December 20, 1865, a daughter of George and Mary Pickard. Her parents moved to Alton, Ill. when she was young, where she spent her early girlhood, returning to Bristol at the age of 16 years. She lived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jones where she was united in marriage to Frank P. Ferrin on February 10, 1887. They quietly observed their 68th wedding anniversary last month.

Several years after their marriage they purchased the Jones farm where they spent a happy life. They have resided with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ferrin for about four years.

She was a member of the Universalist church and sang in the choir for many years. She was active in the functions of the church and community as long as her health permitted. Besides her husband and son she leaves a granddaughter, Mrs. Anthony Charova, two great granddaughters, Misses Sandra and Sharon Volpe, all of Rochester, several nieces and nephews in Oklahoma.

The funeral was held from the Universalist church at 2 Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Harry M. Wright, minister emeritus of the Universalist church, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Elroy VanDyke of Canandaigua. Interment in Bristol Evergreen cemetery.
