

[Fisher, John]

DIES AT 81 YEARS

John Fisher, of Lyndonville, Lived Most of Life at Ridgeway

LYNDONVILLE—John Fisher, 81 years old, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Homer Reeve [Mildred M. Breed], of this village, last night after a short illness. Mr. Fisher was born in the town of Barre on January 7, 1860. He had lived most of his life at Ridgeway, coming here five years ago after the death of his wife [Nancy Jane Britt Fisher]. He was a member of the Ridgeway Universalist church.

Besides the daughter, he is survived by two grandsons [Newell Breed and Warren Breed], of this village. Funeral services will be held from the home of the daughter Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the Rev. Clifford Stetson, pastor of the Middleport and Ridgeway Universalist churches, officiating. Interment will be in West Ridgeway cemetery.
